BLAINE VETOES MATHESON BILL IN HOT MESSAGE TO LEGISLATURE

Anti-Saloon Lobby Hit by Governor in Veto Message

Plain, Unequivocal Enforcement Law Is Needed Says Chief Executive in Message to Assembly.

(By Associated Press.)
Madison, Wis.—The Matheson prohibition enforcement bill was vetoed Tuesday morning by Governor John J. Blaine on the ground that it is "indefinite and uncertain" and in conflict with the federal Volstead act. In his message to the assembly he attacked the anti-saloon league lobby which drew up the measure as "pernicious," and asked that the new enforcement bill be passed which has no evidence of their handiwork.

Dry leaders in both houses said last Friday when the governor asked for recall of the bill for the purpose of amendment, that they would make no effort to override his veto should he decide to disapprove of the measure. At that time they laid the act over until Thursday of this week, forcing him either to veto or sign it today.

Says Mulberger Law Is O. K.
The governor declares in his message to the assembly that the private clubs existing under the Mulberger law, should not be disturbed, because of the fact that they have been approved by the people at the polls. "In some respects the Matheson bill is an improvement upon the Mulberger act," he said, "but its defects far outweigh any improvement."

Direct attack is made on the Anti-Saloon league by Governor Blaine, who says that "had the Matheson bill had the careful legislative consideration which it deserves, it would have been constrained to approve it, even though it did not meet my judgment of what a good enforcement law should be."

Says Lobby Pushes Bill.
"However, I cannot blink the fact, which is of public notoriety, that a dictatorial lobby drew the bill, had it presented, and demanded its passage without regard to the legislature. Bugged members into acquiescence by a vicious propaganda of misrepresentation and through appeal to prejudice."

A plain, unequivocal enforcement law, with effective penalties to properly enforce it, is needed, Governor Blaine says, calling for a measure which runs along the same lines as the federal Volstead act, so that the federal and state officers may cooperate in concurrent enforcement.

Condemns Espionage Law
A good enforcement act will have the sympathetic assistance of the legislature. The governor's message points out, "while an espionage law which provides for spying on the home and the family life will become repulsive and the reaction of the people will endanger the success of any enforcement act."

Too Much "Red Tape"
"There is no difficulty in passing a reasonable enforcement act such as I have suggested. The legislature has plenty of time to enact such a law. The members have given the matter sufficient consideration to know what is needed, and it will free itself from the sinister influences of the pernicious lobby, it may yet put a creditable law upon the statutes."

Robbers Get Away
BUT RUN INTO POLICE
Chicago—Four armed robbers making their getaway after robbing a typographical union safe of $500, rounded a corner of the building and looked into the muzzle of Patrolman J. J. Ryan's revolver early Tuesday morning. Burglar tools, two bottles of nitro-glycerine and a large touring car were recovered in addition to the $500.

The Impossible!
Once more a Gazette Want Ad performs the impossible. Mrs. Fred Newell, 425 Locust street, lost a fountain pen. She gave it up as gone for good. Three weeks later, she thought to try a Classified in the Gazette as a last resort.

Two insertions and the pen was returned to her, despite the fact that 21 days had elapsed since it was lost.

"I want to thank the Gazette," she said when she ordered the ad withdrawn. "I certainly appreciate the results of the 'Lost and Found' column on the Classified."

CITY HONORS HEROIC DEAD OF 3 WARS

OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY HERE GREATEST IN HISTORY.

PATRIOTISM HIGH Trefz, in Thrilling Oration, Demands Square Deal for Veterans.

Breathing an air filled with the hovering spirit of the men who gave their all that their country might live; feeling the touch of the last messages of its heroes of the wars of the past, Janesville responded to its most significant Memorial day, Monday. From sunrise to sunset, the city gave its thoughts to its soldier-dead. With the lowering of the glorious red, white and blue by national guardsmen at court house park as the shadows of night streaked the gold of the departing sun, the greatest Memorial day in the history of the city was completed.

Answer Is Spontaneous
The answer to the leadership of the few remaining, but scattered veterans of the Civil war calling the community to pay tribute to their comrades and the departed of the Spanish American and World wars, was spontaneous. The waving of the flag as the sun came over the eastern horizon at 5:45 aroused Janesville as never before on any Decoration day.

Exciting, swelling sun that burned the pavements to stifling heat, veterans of three wars, augmented by hundreds of civilians, including many women and school children, gathered in a line of march along the city streets. Coming after most beautiful and solemn ceremonies by the G. A. R. and their Women's Relief corps in cooperation with the Spanish war soldiers at the cemetery, the parade aroused a spirit of patriotism rivaled only in war days.

Trefz Sounds Keynote
The note of the day was sounded by Edward F. Trefz, who during the war studied the food conditions of the allies among their armies and in their civilian ranks to determine what America should give. In the principal address of the day at 10 o'clock, honor park following presentation of flags to the Service Star Mothers and the American Legion, he called America to accept the challenge of the men who died in France to keep America as a benefactor and an open opportunity.

Citizens Thrilled by Trefz' Powerful Plea for Veterans
Selecting as his key-note the recent utterance of President Harding—"It is not the wealth of the nation, but the character of the citizenry," Trefz, who saw and knew of the World war as aide to Hoover in food administration work, struck the chord of honor in his masterpiece of the hour, before the assembly of the city.

Excitement by the speaker, who said that the nation was upbraided for its neglectful treatment of veterans and not keeping faith with those disabled. The speaker made it plain that individuals have no liberties or "rights," rather, a code of privileges as protected and preserved by the might of those sharing in the privileges.

Success Due to Spirit
The speaker, three a spotlight on the city of the American war. Success of American arms, he said, was not due to preparedness, nor the wealth of the nation.

Bursting of Dike Sends Hundreds of Farmers Fleeing From Homes

(By Associated Press.)
Woodland, Wash.—Between 400 and 500 persons, farmers and their families, were believed to have escaped to safety as the result of warning given Monday night when a dike near here protecting a reclaimed farm area of 12,000 acres broke under pressure of flood waters from the Columbia river. Damage to farm property was estimated at $300,000.

Preparations have been made for the accommodation here of the refugees. The pressure of the rising waters tore a hole 50 feet wide in the dike. The dike burst at the mouth of Burrows Creek, two miles south of Martin's Bluff, and the waters poured through into the lowlands with terrific force. When first reports of the break reached here Monday night, persons residing within the section were notified by telephones from here and by persons in automobiles sent from here.

Blast in Night Wrecks Construction Company's Plant in Mineral Point

(Special to Gazette.)
Mineral Point.—An explosion which completely wrecked the Hustable Concrete Construction company's plant here and which caused heavy damage to buildings for several blocks around, occurred at 2:30 o'clock Monday morning. The city was shaken by the force of the blast in the early morning. The construction company's plant and all machinery was blown to pieces. A number of plate glass windows in buildings on nearby streets were broken and windows for many blocks from the scene of the explosion were shattered by the force of the blast. The loss Tuesday afternoon was estimated at $2,500, including the loss to the construction company, damage to nearby buildings and broken windows. The Westlake had estimated that the total loss would reach as high as $11,000 or $12,000.

No one was injured, the explosion occurring in the night time when no employees were on duty. It is believed that the explosion was caused from burning gas near the construction company's plant, the flames spreading to the buildings, two small canisters of dynamite and some dynamite stored in the plant exploding. Another theory as to the cause of the blast is that a thief attempting to steal gasoline set fire to the building in which the gasoline was stored.

MATHESON BILL IS POLICE INTERRUPT DEAD SAY DRYS ROBBERS AT WORK

No Chance of Reviving Measure, in Opinion of Anti-Saloon Leaders.
(By Associated Press.)
Milwaukee.—Prominent dry leaders were here Tuesday at the annual meeting of the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon league. Resolutions on the Matheson bill, which has been passed by the legislature and vetoed by the governor, were ready for presentation.

Assemblyman A. E. Matheson, Janesville, author of the bill, was on the program as one of the chief speakers. He said he did not believe the recent attack of Judge Levi M. Burcott, Richard Center, Wis., on the activity of the drys in the recent judicial campaign would be of much help. "The world will be dry by 1920," Dr. P. A. Baker, Westerville, Ohio, national superintendent, said before the meeting. "Some before that time."

Police interrupted a little robbery party at the Monterey Garage, 102 Center street, Tuesday night. The party was broken up by police and as a result two Janesville youths are being held under $1,000 bail facing charges of burglary in the night-time. They are: Walter Meyer, 1420 Riverside street, and James P. 1420 Riverside street.

They are to be given hearings at municipal court on June 8. Both declare they are innocent. Meyer's car was found by police a short distance from the scene of the burglary. It contained several inner tubes alleged to have been stolen from the Monterey garage a few hundred feet away. Meyer's defense is that he was asleep in the car at the time the car having been stolen from him a short time before.

Police think differently and are rounding up evidence to prove that Meyer and Meyer were in the alley back of the garage having disappeared upon seeing the police.

Woman Gives "Tip."
Discovery of the burglarizing party came about when a woman living on River street notified the police department about 1:15 o'clock Tuesday morning that she saw a car without lights, driven off Center avenue and onto Riverside street. Upon watching it after it had been stopped, she said she saw two men alight and go up the alley running in back of the garage.

Police upon their arrival in the patrol found the car parked on Riverside street containing several tubes. A search of the alley and surrounding vicinity was without result, the two men having made their getaway upon seeing the patrol approaching. An entrance was found broken to the rear of the garage and several tubes were piled just outside the door, ready to be carried down the alley and into the car.

Drunk in Edgewater
The car was driven back to police headquarters. Police say an hour later young Meyer walked into the station and said his car had been stolen. He was immediately placed under arrest, although insisting he had not been near the scene.

He said his car was taken while he was in the room. He said he was in the room at the time the car was taken. He said he was in the room at the time the car was taken.

One Out on Bail
Arraigned in municipal court Tuesday morning on a charge of burglary in the night-time, the two boys were not guilty and demanded a hearing set for June 8. Horn furnished bail of $1,000 and was released, but Meyer was held in jail not being able to furnish bonds of that amount.

KENOSHA IRISH RILED BY BRITISH FLAG

Kenosha.—Local Irish were riled here on Decoration day by the display of the British flag at one of the homes in Kenosha. The flag was twice torn down during the day and the last time it stayed down. It was at the home of V. Lee Alward, one of the most prominent men of the city. Alward was away from home and during his absence a servant employed at the home decided he would decorate the house. He was an Englishman and he brought out his English flag with Old Glory. The tearing down of the flag caused some interest in Kenosha.

BLAUSER, WEARY OF JAIL, WILL BE TRIED ON MONDAY

SWISS CHEESE MAKER TO FACE COURT ON FIRST DEGREE MURDER.

Judge Smalley Will Sit on Bench for His First Murder Case.

(By Staff Correspondent.)
Darlington, Wis.—Herman Blauser, a young Swiss cheese maker, sits in the county jail and looks out at the growing grass and hears the birds singing.

There is the merry laughter of the children of the street playing in the front yard or along the sidewalk of the jail.

A tear comes to the eye of the prisoner, usually a quiet stolid man, as he looks out.

Across the lawn looms the courthouse, Lafayette county's pride. It is a building more than usually handsome. Here on the morning of June 8, Herman Blauser will face the honorable court, presided over by Judge C. E. Smalley, of Cuba City, recently elected and his first murder case. Blauser will answer to the charge of first degree murder.

How Darlington Feels.
No one in Darlington thinks Herman Blauser intended to kill Ernest Stalder, another young Swiss cheese maker, for the "Gazette" learned on Christmas day, last. There is no feeling of revenge, only pity for Blauser. He has been a model prisoner. When the Gazette wanted a picture of Blauser he dressed up in his Sunday best and was taken by the sheriff to the photographer. The only picture ever printed of the prisoner is the one with this story.

Wine, Potatoes and Kicked.
There was a wine party at the home of Ernest Stalder, manager of the Oak Grove cheese factory, a mile west of the city, on December 24. He tasted long and there was an abundance of the home made white wine.

R. W. KING, FORMER RESIDENT, DIES

Civil War Veteran, Formerly in Business Here, Succumbs in East.

Word was received in this city Tuesday of the sudden death of R. W. King, 73, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who had been in this city for some time.

J. D. King, 32 South Main street, his only son, left for Brooklyn on an early train to bring the body to Janesville for interment.

Mr. King was an old resident of Janesville. He had been connected with the postal department for 20 years and as superintendent of one of the divisions of the Brooklyn post office for the past 11 years.

Prior to that time he had been in the stationary business in Janesville for a great many years, having started in 1875 with his brother, the late J. D. King in the store now known as the Smith Drug company. Later he purchased his brother's interest and located in the Kimball block. W. J. Skelly then became a business partner. At that time the post office was located in the store where E. P. Burns company is now.

Mr. King was born September 14, 1847, and would have retired on an age pension within another year and a half. He had been in ill health for some time past, but he hoped to retire to his home in Europe.

One of the ambitions of both Mr. and Mrs. King was to return to Janesville to pass the remainder of their days and their well known to the old home more keenly than most of the people who live within the confines of the city. He was a member of the W. H. Sargent post of this city.

Mr. King was a drummer boy during the Civil war, having enlisted at the age of 16. He was captured and confined in Libby prison for several months.

The King family was one of the oldest in this part of the state; the parents, John and Margaret, being Scotch. They have long since passed beyond and their well known to the older residents of the county.

(By Associated Press.)
Madison.—Request was made of Governor John J. Blaine Tuesday morning by the sheriff of Brown county for immediate despatch of troops to Green Bay to quell disturbances which are said to have grown out of a strike in three paper mills there.

Governor Blaine over the telephone from Bosconabel said that he would get in touch with Brown county officials at once and determine if state action is necessary.

Claim is made by city and company officials that workers surrounded the buildings Tuesday morning and refused to allow any other than their own number to enter. They said that the situation was out of the hands of local officials. The governor was expected to return to Madison some time Tuesday. Carl Young, district attorney of Brown county, was here to explain the situation.

1,000 STRIKERS DOING PICKET DUTY AT MILL
Green Bay.—All officials, office employees and strike breakers employed at the Northern Paper mill were turned away Tuesday morning when they sought to gain entrance to the mill. More than 1,000 strikers doing picket duty at the mill, according to Louis Allard, local president of the paper makers union.

No machines were operating as the strikers refused to let the other operators work at a standstill. Strike breakers were turned away by the pickets, while others said they would not return to work. According to official reports, 20 men have been working in the mill since the strike began about six weeks ago.

20 Men Are in Mill
According to Allard about 20 men are in the mill at the present time, and efforts are being made to get the men out.

Included among the men in the mill is R. W. Cunningham, assistant superintendent. Another man got into the yard behind the mill in an automobile after he had run over one of the pickets. Cunningham is believed to have stayed there Monday night.

Men Allowed to Leave

GERMANS TO LAY DOWN ARMS IF ALLIES KEEP ORDER
(By Associated Press.)
Ober-Gleusu, Upper Silesia.—German defense organizations in the Oder river valley disarm and disband as soon as inter-allied authority has been re-established in Upper Silesia. said General Von Hoefler, commander of German forces in the region. He added that the allies should be thankful that the Germans had organized "these men and had maintained order instead of trying to disarm and disband these troops at this critical time."

"We do not want to keep these men under arms a minute longer than necessary," he went on, "but we must protect ourselves."

General Von Hoefler lost his right arm during the great war and is considered the strongest German personality in Silesia. He has been in close touch with the British and American officials in Upper Silesia and is said to have had considerable influence with allied officials.

BANKERS PLAN NEW ERA OF INVESTMENT

Harding Undertakes Job Unparalleled in American History.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington. President Harding has undertaken a job unparalleled in American history. He has asked the bankers of America who, he recognizes, will practically finance the world in the next ten years to cooperate with the United States government, not for governmental purposes, but for the handling of governmental obligations, but for the safeguarding of every class of people—large and small, farmers, business men, producers, consumers.

Planked by Secretary Mellon of the treasury and Secretary Hoover of the department of commerce whose vision of what is ahead of America is a controlling influence in government now-a-days. President Harding has called together first the international bankers of the east, and then the bankers of the west, who have elapsed he will have conferred with the bankers and business men of every section of the country.

Obviously Mr. Harding wants to bring about a return to normalcy and doesn't want the government to impose any artificial measures. He wants to make a return to normalcy, but his cabinet secretaries have pointed out certain dangers, certain pitfalls, if every class goes ahead individually without regard to the interests of other classes in our economic life. Mr. Harding calls it the beginning of an era of understanding. What he really wants is conference and provision before America takes the big step of giving of its financial resources to rehabilitate the world.

Now that Mr. Harding has outlined the essentials of his foreign policy, he has delineated the extent to which the United States government will cooperate with the allies in seeing to it that Germany will pay her war indemnity, the big factor of the economic situation. He has turned himself forward with unmistakable emphasis. Mr. Harding admits frankly that America must finance the world. He doesn't dispute the fact that Germany must borrow lots of money to pay the allies and that directly or indirectly much of that borrowing will be done in the United States. He doesn't dispute the fact that the investors of America will really be loaning Germany money whereever they pay her war indemnity. This is a fact.

More Loans Coming. More loans like that are, of course, coming. President Harding and his cabinet began to wonder whether Europe would slowly but surely take the money out of the United States that money needed to finance American railroads, for example, would be hard to get except at the expense of interest. Mr. Harding wanted to know from the international bankers what would happen to the domestic situation in the United States if a continuous flow of American money abroad were started.

Young Men Win Local Golf Match; E. Wilcox Leads

The old saying, that young men are for action was proved once again when the young men of the Janesville Country club defeated the challenging old men on the greens Monday afternoon, 20 to 18. Just the same they had to go some at that and the old men are doing some talking about trying it again.

Twenty-six golfers took part in the contest. Despite the boiling sun, some good scores were made. Ed Wilcox was the best of the last 18, with a score of 81 gross. The prizes for the afternoon were won as follows:

Manitowish County Judge John Chloupek, 80, Justice Hubert Fulge, 85, and Atty. Arthur Wyseman, 40, took their annual pedestrian pilgrimage to Mount Solon, Wis., for the 40 Corners and Kilmersville. The distance is about 22 miles and with Judge Fulge has been a custom for 40 years. His friend, Judge Chloupek, has made the journey with him for the past 20 years and for the last year, Atty. Wyseman has been the third member of the party.

make loans—to mortgage their futures in the hope that their skill, resources, and energies will pay it all back in the next generation or so and enable them thus to accomplish their industrial and commercial restoration. Politics, national and international, may be the spectacular side of government, but President Harding is finding out that his entire administration will be much more concerned with the problems of business and finance, domestic and foreign, than anything else. Everything from disarmament to taxation and the tariff is interwoven in the big economic riddle which Mr. Harding, assisted by Secretaries Mellon and Hoover and Wallace is bending his energy to solve.

AT THE THEATRES

The picture in which Wesley Barry, the 15-year old treckled faced boy, makes his debut as a star and which has been eagerly awaited in this city since he has been seen in "Go and Get It" and "Don't Ever Marry" was shown at the Apollo theater Monday, the first of its four days' run. The name of the picture is "Dinty," a Marshall Neilan production.

Humor, pathos, mystery and excitement are all cleverly brought out in the picture. Some beautiful scenes in Ireland open the picture and the plot is started immediately at the beginning with the marriage of "Dinty" father and mother in Ireland. A touch of pathos is added when the mother, played by Colleen Moore, dies just as Dinty is making a success as king of the town. Wesley Barry's acting in this one place is sufficient to give him his place in stardom.

Many thrills are in store in the rest of the picture. Dinty's rescue of a girl wins the gratitude of the father and all concerned and he and the rest of his "bunch" are rewarded with dishes of ice-cream which make them smile from ear to ear.

Free from any suggestion of sex, which makes so many pictures objectionable, the well-selected cast including success as king of the town, Wesley Barry and mother in Ireland. credit is due for their forbearance

Hundreds lined the sidewalks of Main and Milwaukee streets, while others viewed the procession from cars parked along side streets. Many sought vantage points in office win-were applauded all along the line of march. Similar outpourings of honor were shown when women of the Service Star Legion passed by.

Streets Well Decorated.

The streets and stores, zealously decorated with flags made a fitting setting for the parade in which the youngest school children of the city and the oldest veterans of the Civil war took part. Flags and poppies were in abundance, and the streets in three hands added greatly to the life of the parade.

The parade was a half hour late in getting under way, starting from the place of formation, North Main street,

PAVING DISPUTE
LOOMS IN COUNCIL

Discussion Tonight May End in Ordering More Concrete Instead of Asphalt.

A dispute over the relative merits of asphalt and concrete paving threatens to break out in the city council, Tuesday night, as a result of a question brought up in the regular meeting Monday night by Ald. A. J. Gibbons. This, combined with action on the purchase of Riverside park, and disposal of the anti-dance hall ordinance, promises to make Tuesday night's session of the city council an interesting one.

The council, with four members absent, met Monday night in accordance with law but adjourned 10 minutes later because of Memorial day. Ald. E. H. Ransom presided in the absence of Mayor T. E. Welsh, in Milwaukee attending a Knights of Columbus gathering. A license was granted the Hagenback-Wallace circus to exhibit here on June 21, the fee being $75.

Paving Motions Not Read
The question of paving came up after City Clerk Sartell had read the minutes of last meeting showing that the council on that night had voted to lay concrete paving on Hickory street and asphalt on number of streets in Blackhawk and Valleyview additions. Alderman Gibbons took exception to this on the grounds that the resolutions were not read in full that night. He said the motions were put through so fast that most of the aldermen did not realize they were voting to pave streets—and particularly that the types of paving were specified. He said the resolutions offered by Ald. J. J. Dulin were not read so as to show what type of paving was to be laid—that the motions were merely read by title. Many of the aldermen did not know they had passed on types of paving until the next day when they read it in the Gazette.

Reconsider All Paving
After calling attention to this, Alderman Gibbons offered a resolution to reconsider all matters pertaining to paving at the adjourned meeting Tuesday night. Seconded by Alderman Dulin, the motion was passed unanimously.

It is understood a number of property owners in the Blackhawk district favor concrete as against asphalt and are circulating a petition to that effect.

While several aldermen want to try out concrete streets in Janesville, it is known Mayor Welsh and a number of councilmen are strong advocates of asphalt and anxious to continue this type of paving. There was considerable of a row over concrete and asphalt when the 1920 paving program was up for discussion, featured by Mayor Welsh's taking the floor to talk in favor of asphalt and to attack W. J. Hill, then alderman, for his advancement of concrete "propaganda."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Editor Gazette:
This little controversy over the park question has interested me considerably. I am very sure that the "Pines" and the only thing that surprises me is that this property and Dunns' pasture, across the way, have not been bought by the city and made into a recreation park long ago, as it is ideal for that purpose in every way; handy to reach from all parts of the city, and surely our children need such a place. Many mothers would be willing to have their children go there who would hesitate about letting them go up to Riverside alone. And if this will depreciate the value of my property I am willing to share my share of it. But I do not think it will. Chicago's most exclusive homes are near Lincoln park.

And now about the pavilion. I think some of my hysterical neighbors are "making a mountain out of a molehill." I remember when a poor man bought a house that was on that ground, intending to move it across the way, and some one who did not think it quite free enough to be in their neighborhood caused an injunction to be served and stopped him moving his own house onto his own lot, thereby causing great inconvenience and loss to this man. It seems to me that injunctions and ordinances are getting too common now. If the parties seeking them happen to have money or influence they can get most anything. And if the council listens to this, I can only say we need about six more aldermen and the poor people will not have a voice in anything. As far as dancing there is concerned, it appears to be much more apt to be well conducted than away off down in the woods, far from police protection. A FURTHER WARNING.

Editor Gazette:
In Monday's Gazette the author of the article in the Voice of the People column made a fruitless attempt to prove that the writer of the article of a previous article in the same column of the paper a week before.

This person asks that the Property Owner come out in the open and not throw stones from a dark corner. Well, at any rate it must have been a good aim regardless of the distance, and not the same aim as the writer of the previous article, which reminds me of the old saying, "Monkey does as monkey sees."

I am also questioned as to the extent of my offenses to the city. This my dear friends have been told they were never fined, but always gratefully accepted. I have always donated with one object in mind, "never to add insult to injury."

I do not profess to be an influential citizen, nor a professional along any line, but I do believe that if the majority of my near neighbors were favorable to a proposition and I consent, I would not need to be told to move. I would govern myself accordingly.

I don't believe the hospital has moved; at least, it stood on the same place as I walked by tonight, and if this so-called "Observer" lives up to his name, the naked eye will more than solve the problem for him.

Personally I like seeing for one of my amusements, along with all outdoor sports. However, it appears children love other forms of amusement. Possibly Mr. Riley would have something as an attraction to "The Pines" for children and "others" if their desires were expressed.

So far no good argument has been advanced why "The Pines" should not be built. It has been compared with the South Jackson street dance hall, but as I have never visited that place and do not take my parties there for cuttings, I cannot speak for nor against it. But I do hope this project of "The Pines" matures with the decency in which it has been advocated, so that I may be able to have an enjoyable evening occasionally in a good crowd.

The proverb, "Live and let live," means a great deal for four words. Can it not be digested?

Editor Gazette:
Having been a subscriber to the GAZETTE for some 10 years, it has become a habit to look through its columns. Now I wish to enter a protest against the printing of parts of sermons from the Methodist church. Whether it is the society that keeps the place open or whether it is the pastor, they employ that is responsible is a matter for them to settle among themselves. It is just one everlasting whine that somebody else is doing a poor job and then they are in the lead when they come out with the charge that other people are just as morally rotten as they insist they are. According to the article in Monday's paper, Sunday night's service was devoted to the dance question again. It was that same old thing which is sometimes sprung upon the head of "Plain Talk" in which a preacher takes advantage of his position and tells a who's audience what at some time might pass between a couple of idle gossipers. The insinuations cast against Riverside are the way and some one who did not think it quite free enough to be in their neighborhood caused an injunction to be served and stopped him moving his own house onto his own lot, thereby causing great inconvenience and loss to this man. It seems to me that injunctions and ordinances are getting too common now. If the parties seeking them happen to have money or influence they can get most anything. And if the council listens to this, I can only say we need about six more aldermen and the poor people will not have a voice in anything. As far as dancing there is concerned, it appears to be much more apt to be well conducted than away off down in the woods, far from police protection. A FURTHER WARNING.

Editor Gazette:
Yesterday was Memorial day! The day that we honored the dead. Who gave up their lives so that our rights might be secured. It is a day that is good, and great, and true in the world today.

At the close of yesterday's dinner at the Armory, the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." One old veteran of the Civil war struggled to get on his feet with the aid of his crutches. After being helped by one of his grandsons, he stood up and sang the old song. He sang it with the strains of that glorious hymn were played. That man fought for the flag and honored it. He knew that that flag represented the United States. On the other hand, those flagrant men who lined the streets as the flag passed in review. It certainly does not reflect very much credit on them, when they stand in indifference as the flag passes; not even troubling themselves to uncover their heads as a mark of respect. Whether they are indifferent or ignorant, there is no excuse for them.

It is very evident that those careless ones never had the opportunity to go through hell for that flag. But their attitude would indeed be different. America is fast forgetting there ever was a war for world democracy, but let us not forget to respect and honor that flag, which has always been triumphant in her battles for justice, freedom and equality.

RAT POPULATION
HERE DECREASES

A decrease in the number of rats in the downtown district is noted by Janesville's night policemen who credit city health officials for having brought about sanitary conditions that eliminate the rats from alleys and along the river where they used to be seen in large numbers.

"Several years ago when I was on a beat," said Chief Thomas Morrissey, "it was common thing in going through the alleys at night to have a couple of rats dart out from underneath a building and run across our feet. Sam Brown used to have a dog which would go on the beat with him nights and chew up every rat he could find. The old police dog, 'Knute,' that died about two years ago, was afraid of rats."

PHONE BOYCOTT STARTS JUNE 1ST

Farmers Around Beloit Order Service Discontinued Due to High Rates.

Not having reached a compromise, the Farmers Telephone Company last Saturday in Beloit and decided that they would have their phone service discontinued June 1. Already between 75 and 100 phones have been discontinued.

It was the contention of the farmers at the meeting that with wool and other products of the farmers selling at low prices, they could not afford to pay $2.50 for service on a pay line which they have been doing since the company increased the rates from $1.50. The farmers asked that the company give better service and reduce the number of parties on a wire.

This they at first promised to do, it is claimed, but it was not done. When asked to make the company better, they had no funds with which to do the work.

The farmers contend if they did not have the funds to do this work, they should have had a 5 per cent dividend a short time ago.

$18,000 Lumber Case Tried in Circuit Court

A jury was called Tuesday afternoon on the lumber contract case of the George T. Mickle Lumber company against the Rock county Lumber company, against D. A. Matteson and Adolph Lindstrom, of the Matteson-Lindstrom construction company.

The case was heard before Judge Grimm in the Rock county circuit court.

The litigation is over four contracts for lumber shipped to Janesville. The total damages alleged is more than $18,000, according to the complaint.

An adverse examination was held in the case before Court Commissioner M. P. Richardson last week. The complaint states four sales of lumber and building supplies and alleges that no payments were made on the property.

The action of Curtis Grant against Henry Robbins, over a troublesome $40 shotgun, was to have been heard in the circuit court Tuesday. The shotgun was seized jointly by the plaintiff and defendant. It is alleged that the defendant refused to allow Grant to have the use of it. The case started in the municipal court and was taken to the circuit court on an appeal. A sum of $50 is involved.

LENROOT FIGHTS APPROPRIATIONS IN NAVAL BILL

The cut should be made, he said, by eliminating new aircraft carriers part of the general building fund.

SHERIFF CALLS FOR TROOPS AT GREEN BAY

Fox river and taken to the opposite side. It is believed that the men will take trains going south. The agreement was said to have included a clause which would allow the men to remain at the mill to keep up steam and that also several watchmen would be permitted to stay.

It was reported that George P. Hambrecht, Madison, chairman of the industrial commission, and another member would arrive in the city and try to settle the strike. This could not be confirmed.

A few fights were reported early Tuesday morning, but so far as could be learned no one was injured.

GREEN BAY PAPER MANUFACTURER DIES

Green Bay.—The death of Henry Goethe, 51, secretary of the John Hebert company, paper manufacturer, was announced Monday in Green Bay. Mr. Goethe died Saturday night of heart disease.

The opening of the Hebert mill Tuesday has been postponed. The plant will reopen Thursday after being closed since May 1, because of a strike of employees in protest against a 15 to 25 per cent wage reduction.

Police and deputies are patrolling the streets in the vicinity of the mill. Razors Are Used.

Disorders Monday resulted in the cutting of two persons and the arrest of three men charged with disorderly conduct. One of the men said to be a striker who was sitting near the sulphite plant with Dennis Fitzgerald, another alleged striker, were both hit on the head by four men said to be on the side of the mill, and then slashed with razors. Tatony, according to hospital authorities Tuesday morning, was not out of danger, but Fitzgerald said he was recovering fast from his wounds.

Mill Is Closed.
The Northern Paper mill was closed down at 4 p. m. in compliance with the order of Sheriff Nick Ryan, who is unable to control the strike situation with his deputies, according to an announcement of officials. Employees have been asked not to attempt to be made to operate other than to keep steam up.

It is believed here that no state troops would be sent to Green Bay to patrol the strike zone. Now that the mill officials have relinquished their intention of closing the mill. Although no official word has come from Madison as to the decision of an appropriation of state troops, it is understood that he does not favor state interference in the strike at this time.

ARBITRATION OFFER BEING CONSIDERED

The plant and shop delegates from each of the plants affected. The meetings were private and it was expected they would continue for several days.

Other contestants were Forrest Shaw and Donald Whitmore.

CARNIVAL DRAWS SEVERAL HUNDRED ON OPENING DAY

Snapp Brothers' carnival commanded a big crowd at their shows at South Janesville, Memorial day evening. Special interurban cars were run to the grounds from Janesville. There are the usual carnival features so familiar to everybody and some new ones. The same old games, where men and women and children venture the nickels and dimes are everywhere. You can't win, get anything from a teddy bear with eyes lighted with electricity, to a basket of fruit.

The show is here under the auspices of the Janesville Spanish war veterans.

There are several rides, the merry-go-round, the ferris wheel, "the whip" and "the humming bird." The last two offer a diversion in dizziness. There are mysterious dark places, where one trends with uncertain footsteps.

There are the stands, where for a certain sum of money a number which if the wheel stops on it he wins, and other games of chance seen at any county fair or carnival. There are several new ones. In one, packages of cigars are lined up on a board. With a pop gun and a cork as a bullet, anyone knocking a package off the board wins.

The show, announced as being of twelve acts, is diving by three girls in a tank. Several good stunts are done, including eating and drinking under the water, turning somersaults at the bottom and many fancy dives.

There is also a wrestling show, the snake charmer, chorus girls and other performances which offer an enjoyable evening.

Legion Urged to Take Up Part in National Affairs

Calling upon the ex-service men of the world to take part in the American Legion and take the place of the G. A. R. in controlling the men in public office. Edward F. Treitz, right hand man to Hoover during the late war, sounded a new declaration here Monday. In taking his stand, Mr. Treitz stated that he did so despite the criticism that he knew would follow his statement.

The speaker was made at the army where 250 veterans of three wars and 25 soldiers from Camp Grant were served dinner by the women of the Service Star Legion.

"From 1863 until 1902," he declared, "this country had the most amazing prosperity of any nation in the world and the best government. During those years the G. A. R. held sway and dictated practically every appointment to office. No man could be elected without their support. Treitz said that your men and women demanded a moral standing, mental ability and efficiency. There never was a member of the G. A. R. imprudent or an inefficient character."

Demand Honesty
"You men are going into the same thing. Align yourselves for this purpose. See that your men and women are above charge morally and morally. Demand efficiency, honesty and self sacrifice. Endorse only such men. If you men do that, the last 50 years of American life will be like the last 50 years of American life in character, strong in its manhood and ready to lead the world."

"Band yourselves together and make yourselves the best men and women of the world. Demand of every man in office morality, mentally, and patriotism as deep as your own."

Proceeding Mr. Treitz, Chaplain Hunt of Camp Grant urged the waging of war against the enemies of democracy within the nation.

BLAUSER TO BE TRIED MONDAY

It was potent stuff and full of suspense. A gun was heard at midnight and morning there was a quarrel between Stalder and Blauser, heretofore the best of friends and companions. When the quarrel was over Stalder was dead on the floor of the little room off from the parlor of the cheese maker's home and Blauser was fleeing for safety.

Sober, Industrious Men.

Neither of the men had ever been known to quarrel or to have been engaged in any row or disturbance. Their records were excellent. Blauser had only been there a short time. Stalder was longer known. He was a sober, industrious man. He had been seen intoxicated and neither was reputed to be a drinking man.

District Attorney C. F. McDaniel has announced that he will charge Blauser with first degree murder, which on conviction will send Blauser to state's prison for life. Blauser has retained E. F. McConley, this city, to defend him.

Blauser Alone Knows Story.

Version of the story have been many times heard since the incident. Blauser, and he alone, knows the real story of the events which led up to and prompted the shooting of the young cheese maker to death. So one else was in the room that evening when the shooting occurred. Other members of the party tell of Blauser running out of the room following the shooting, the gun smoking in his hand. The guests found Stalder lying in a pool of blood. Instantly killed. Three shots had entered the body, two of which pierced the heart.

Was Quickly Apprehended.

In the excitement Blauser escaped from the home, heedless and careless on the wintry night. He ran through a field onto a side road and went to Darlington, where he was to bed. He was arrested the next morning as he was out walking. He had borrowed a hat and coat from a room mate and had a dejected appearance. From his statements he had apparently not planned to escape.

Ever since the shooting, Blauser has been abiding his time, in the county jail, of which he has times been the sole occupant. With the coming of the spring, the birds, the green grass and new crops, he has longed for freedom, that he might enjoy these things. He is fully repaid now for the long months of waiting to know his fate.

Sister Committed Suicide.

Thirty five years old, a cheese-maker in Darlington and vicinity for a number of years, he has always been a peaceful citizen and well liked. He is unmarried and has no relatives. A sister committed suicide by drowning here about three years ago.

THE GIRL WHO HAD NOCHANCE

By Marion Rubincam

CHAPTER XXV.

The following morning Ruth got up and dressed very carefully. In spite of the fact that it was now after 12 o'clock when she was taken home, she did not feel tired. There was a natural pink in her cheeks and she combed her hair, trying to make a more dignified fashion than the one she usually used.

The new way made her but more becoming, and of course, her new suit was a delight. She thought she looked very well when she was ready finally for the luncheon.

She put the borrowed gray chiffon dress and the cap in the bag Gaby had loaned her, and walked over to the little apartment. She had, of course, overheard the boarding house breakfast hour, so she indulged in a cup of hot coffee while she was waiting across the city. She felt quite extravagant, though the coffee cost only five cents.

But Ruth had handed so few nickels in her life that everyone was pleased to hear of it.

At last, when she arrived, Gaby, in a smart little blue serge street dress, led her in.

"You needn't have bothered to return to dress up, but I want to give it to you. It's so becoming to you."

"But—"

"Oh, it's mine as much as Myra's. Emily gave it all her things and told us to fight it out between us how we should divide it. I look hideous in gray, so I never wore it. Myra looks well in it, but the lines of her skirt make her get fat. She's going to have a huge figure if she isn't careful."

She hurried about as she talked. The apartment was in great confusion and Ruth had a sudden desire to straighten it up. Cigarette stubs filled every receptacle, and ashes covered the carpet. There were plates left un washed, and the little tea table her set for breakfast, with a few dishes still upon it. Gaby took a fox scarf from herself, found a pair of white gloves after a search through a handbag from one of the mess-table mornings, she announced, as she rescued her veil from the floor.

She opened a door on the way out, and called:

"Dear bones! Get up, it's half past twelve. You'll have to do the rest of the work. I did a lot. I left the coffee on the stove."

What Shall I Do?

Answered by VIRGINIA PAGE

Vacation Time.

"Dear Miss Page: As we are regular readers of your column and very interested in your answers, we are writing to you for advice. We are going to get a vacation, and we have boy friends with whom we have always gone. We began to notice they were drifting away from us and have lately heard that they said they were sick of us. We are now in a new city, and we are wondering how we shall we keep them from getting sick of us again?—The G. I. Club."

And here you have it, girls! When you will have "steadies" and tie the poor boys to your apron strings so tightly that they can't even smile at another girl, they get "sick" of you. Won't you some day take my advice and make so many friends that they won't have a chance to get sick of you? I hope so.

Mary H. Haste, Repent at Leisure

"Dear Miss Page: I am 17 years old. Do you think it is right for me to get married to a fellow I have known about six months? My folks like him very much, but as I have other fellows I like just as well and have also a good position, do you think I ought to give it up and marry him for my folks' sake?—Dorothy."

If I do not, I don't think any girl ought to marry for anybody's sake but her own. You are several years too young to marry anyway. Dorothy! And besides, the concept in very unusual cases. I don't think people ought to marry until they have known each other at least a year—they ought to be a little bit better acquainted. If there are other boys you like as well, it proves that you don't love this boy enough to marry him. Stick to your good position and have a happy girlhood, and forget about marriage until you are old enough to undertake its responsibilities and have found a man whom you love so much that you just can't get along without him, please.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Page in care of the "What Shall I Do?" department will be answered in these columns in the future. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quick reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the questions.—The Editor.

RECIPIES FOR A DAY

Cheese Canapés—One cup grated cheese, one teaspoon salt, dash of red pepper, six slices buttered bread. Cut the bread into squares; butter them lightly and brown by placing in the oven. Cover each with a thick layer of the grated cheese to which the seasoning has been added. Bake in oven until the cheese is melted, and serve at once.

Consomme—(This recipe makes enough to last several days)—Two pounds lean beef, one small knuckle veal, two tablespoons butter, one small onion, one stalk celery, one carrot, one bay leaf, two quarts water. Cut the beef and veal into small pieces and brown them in the butter over a hot fire. Add the cold water, onion, carrot, celery and bay leaf. Simmer slowly for five or six hours in a covered kettle. Strain from fire, cool, remove the fat and strain. Heat whenever ready to serve.

The Letters of Tessie and Joe

DEAR TESSIE:

I am sending home a book. The title of it is "Why? What? How?" and it contains 10,000 questions and answers. It's supposed to include every question the most curious child could ask in its most inquisitive moment. During the past few days I have been haunted by the fear that when the baby grows old enough to ask questions, such as "Why does it rain down?" or "How does the thunder know when to stop?" and other simple little questions on simple subjects, the only way I'll be able to help him out will be by changing the subject.

So I bought the "Why? What? How?" book, and I earnestly advise you to browse around among the facts whenever you have a few idle moments on your hands, which is practically all the time unless you've suddenly changed a lot. In that way you will gain a lot of superficial knowledge, and then if the child happens to ask you one that you've forgotten the answer to you can always say, "Look it up in the book—you'll remember it much better if you look it up for yourself."

"Why? What? How?" comes in two volumes. I'm sending you one and keeping one for myself, so between the two of us we ought to be able to give the kid a pretty stiff battle. Besides that, the assorted information ought to prove useful in stopping up holes in conversation. You know there are always times in every gathering when the conversation seems to turn over on its back and die. Well, that'll be your cue to chip in with, "Oh, has anyone heard that radium comes from some stuff called pitchblende?" or, "Mercury, folks, did you know the Protozoa are the lowest members of the animal kingdom?"

Well, don't get a headache over it. Love,

JOE.

COQUE FEATHERS MAKE NEWEST FANS

By ELOISE.

Huge fans are still in vogue for these warm days. In many instances they form the most effective color contrast and blurring ideas. The curled or uncured ostrich feathers which have made the most gorgeous fans of the past season are still good, but the very newest idea is the fan made of coque feathers. This odd fan of huge proportions is made of dried

120 LBS. OF BEEF, IS DAILY ORDER OF RESTAURANT

Housewives who complain of the terrors of marketing for the family should look over the daily order list of a Janesville restaurant.

Each and every day there is ordered at the Badger cafe a list of foodstuffs which make a part of the day's ordering:

120 pounds of beef, 75 pounds of pork, with 15 pounds of ham and bacon.

And even this problem is not to be compared to being a regimental mess sergeant or officer in charge of the casual mess stations in the army. There were kitchens used where from 15,000 to 20,000 men were fed three times a day.

And yet the housewife often worries over "what to order to-day."

Green Day—That race in no detriment in cutting capers was proved at the May festival of the Green Day Turners when some of the city's athletes were the besting in a gymnastic exhibition. B. J. Ansoerg, 76, and Otto Streubel, 50, participated in the steel and wood exercises and were as nimble as their grandsons in jumping the horizontal bars. This pair of athletes have featured the May festival of Turners' society for 50 years.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON. Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man of 22 and have been keeping company with a girl of 18. We were engaged, but had some little dispute and broke it. Now we are willing to forget and go back as we once were, but her father does not allow me to see her. She lives in a town some distance from here.

We are in distress about what to do. We love each other very dearly and would like you advice.

G. H. P.

Do not ask the girl to deceive her father and to meet you secretly. It will be better to tell her that you are going to work hard for the time when you will be able to make a new home for her. If you love each other deeply, time will not lessen your affection for each other. Of course if your love is not true it would be better to find it out before it is too late. Prove yourself worthy and then when you are financially able ask the girl to become your wife.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am only a girl nearly 16 years old. I have been going with a young man aged 23 since last fall. He was very good to me at first and I have grown very fond of him. He says he loves me, and I love him. I am not a girl who cares to go out with different boys.

All the time he was going with me he did not go with other girls. I went out once with another boy, but did not delay in telling him about it. He seemed very glad to have me speak the truth.

But at last the crash came. We were not of the same religion. He told me his parents forbade him to come and see me. My parents have no objections. This young man is very ready to obey his parents. Do you think if he really loved me he would give me up just on account of my religion? I have no intention to marry as yet, but I love him dearly and therefore want advice.

HEART-BROKEN.

If the young man had loved you more than one else in the world he would not have given you up on account of religion. Probably he liked you, but his love for his parents was stronger.

Try not to grieve, little girl. You are very young and will have many happy times and other sweethearts who will mean just as much and more.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 21 and had a boy friend of 22. A short time ago we had a quarrel and broke up friendship on account of another girl.

Should I recognize him when I meet him face to face? Every time we went to a dance this girl would be there, and always the day after I would hear some tales about my boy friend and me.

About two months ago I heard my friend had been keeping company with her since our quarrel.

Do you think he has been true to me? His mother and everybody else is against the girl he is going with now.

FORGET-ME-NOT.

Tractors Ensnare Fort Twice--Milton Wins Auto Race

NARROW ESCAPE FOR LOCALS IN SECOND BATTLE

Pressing Lathrop hard Monday afternoon, Fort Sheridan outdid Janesville in the fair grounds but the luck was with the Tractors who won, 5 to 4. In the morning the locals took the bacon over at Evansville, 5 to 0, with Wooten in the box.

Right from the things began to look cloudy Monday afternoon when the soldiers started off with a brace of runs. The Tractors came back to even the score in the same stanza. Then the Fort put one over in the fourth and held the lead until the locals added two in the sixth. One by Janesville in the eighth was equalled by a lone tally by the Fort in a belated and dangerous rally in the ninth.

Doughboys on Ties

For the first time since he has pitched for Janesville "Smiling Bill" lost his laughter Monday. In the seventh, he stepped from his box and yelled at the Tractors to use a little less eye sight in judging the balls as they came over the platter.

The doughboys used every source to get their income. A darkie named Virgil was responsible for their first three runs. In the first after "Duffy" had singled and took had walked he smashed out a two bagger way back to left center scoring both men. He left stranded on the sack. A two bagger by the same chap started things in the fourth, a sacrifice putting him on third and a single scoring him.

Loss of Headwork

The game was complete with headwork. It was by this method that the locals pushed across their first brace. Breckenridge opened by drawing a free ticket to first after stealing second. He was pushed to third on Croak's sacrifice who was safe when the pitcher—a major—made a wild heave, trying to make home, however, "Freck" was nabbed when Smithson was safe on a fielder's choice. Brackott's single scored Freck and sent Smith to third. After Shook made the initial sack by being hit by the pitcher, he started to second. Just before he was touched out Smithson scored.

Summary: Two base hits—Virgil, (2). Struck out—By Lathrop, 8; by Merriat, 2. Baser on balls—Lathrop, 2; Merriat, 2. Stolen bases—Holmes, Breckenridge. Sacrifice hits—Merriat, Croak, Smithson, Brackott, (2). Left on bases—Fort Sheridan, 6; Janesville, 4. Double play—Holmes to Peck to Sapitt. Wild pitch—Merriat. Hit by pitcher—Shook, (2) by Merriat. Trips—Wooten and Meyer. Time—1:20.

Tractors New to Top

In the sixth, Croak singled went to second on Smithson's sacrifice, both players going on for another sack, when the third baseman made a wild peg. A pitch by Major Merriat that went wide of the plate let Croak in and "Smithy" stepped out to third, from where he scored on Brackott's sacrifice fly.

The run that saved up the game for the Perring crew came in the eighth and started when Centerfielder Duffy muffed a high one shot up by Smithson. Brackott, executing his second sacrifice of the day, put "Lefty" on second from where he scored on Schwinn's single through short.

An error by Arle in the ninth was partly responsible for the fourth run of the Sheridan outfit. After making a pretty stop of a rap from Hessler's bat he threw short to first, the ball speeding out to the back, and the runner going to second. While the next man up, a pinch hitter named Dodger, was dying at first, Hessler went to third and on the same kind of a play that nabbed Hill he scored. Holmes then singled and stole second and things looked just a little bit shaky for a moment, but Bill Smith struck out the next and last man.

Perring in the Saddle

Perring was unable to play Monday afternoon. In the game at Evansville he wrenched his right side badly. Shook took the third sack and held it to perfection while Smithson went out into right field and Horniche performed behind the batter.

A double force out was pulled on Janesville in the fifth Monday afternoon. Horniche singled and was followed by Lathrop who walked, Breckenridge lined to second who muffed it up but recovered in time to force "Horny" at third and Bill at second.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Sox in Split; Cubs Drop Two; Brewers Victors

American League.

With both games jammed full of slugging, the White Sox and St. Louis split, 4-5 for the Browns and 3-5 for the Sox. Home runs by Shelly, Sister and Williams were the big marks of the 58 hits.

Ebbe Kautz connected with his fourteenth homer Sunday and tied the record of 17 made by Cravath. The Yankees got only two scattered hits in the afternoon and lost to Washington, 3 to 0, after they had won in the morning, 2 to 1.

Romell gave Boston only two swats, Philadelphia taking the afternoon game, 2 to 1, after they had swiped the morning contest, 8 to 1.

Driving Bagby off the slab with nine bingles, one of them a four banger, the Tigers defeated Cleveland in the afternoon, 9 to 5, to make up for the 6-5 loss suffered in the morning.

National League.

Two raics were made by the Pirates Monday upon the Cubs, and Pittsburgh won both, 13-0 and 6-2. The Cubs gathered only 16 hits all day.

Cubs swiped two games from Brooklyn, 6-5, and 6-5. The afternoon affair went 16 innings. After Hood broke a 3-2 tie in the fourteenth with a terrific homer, a pass by Cadore, followed by a couple of singles, tied it again. With men on first and third and two down in the sixteenth, Oeschger belted and Hood scored. A triple and a single won for the Braves.

Two home runs won the a. m. appearance for the Giants from Philadelphia, 5-1. Six twirlers were used in the second game, also won by New York, 13-7.

The Cardinals capped both games Monday from Cincinnati, 9 to 4 and 7 to 4.

American Association.

Hot dog, the Brewers took two from Kansas City for four straight, 17-5 and 9-0. Cooney's work at the bat was the feature, getting six hits, two in the second game, and two in the first.

Dongo's pitchers dropped both games to St. Paul, 4-3, 9-4.

Wright's pitching won for Louisville over Indianapolis, 3-0. In the a. m., and Schreiber's single broke a 10 inning tie for the Indians in the p. m., 10-9.

Columbus and Toledo split, the Senators winning in the afternoon, 9-3, the Mudhens in the morning, 6-5.

They never made a cigarette like this in my day

The Camel idea wasn't born then. It was the exclusive expert Camel blend that revolutionized cigarette smoking.

That Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos hits just the right spot. It gives Camels such mellow mildness and fragrance!

The first time I smoked Camels I knew they were made for me. I knew they were the smoothest, finest cigarette in the world, at any price.

Nobody can tell me anything different.

Carp Is Perfect in Private Work

Manassas, N. Y.—Refreshed by his two day lay-off, Georges Carpentier sailed into work Tuesday with a speed and seriousness that surprised even the easy going manager, Desamps.

Soon after a hearty breakfast, the challenger took Italian Joe Gans and Paul Journee for a grueling test over the roads in the large estate across from the camp. Half an hour's play with a soccer football, wrestling and shadow boxing and a rough and tumble frolic with Journee and Gans, were other events on the morning program.

Georges notified the camp to prepare for a ring session in the afternoon. Willie Lewis, one time possessor of a wallowing right, volunteered his services and was anxious to work with Carpentier immediately.

Georges is no slacker on work. On the days he is "not at home" to newspaper men, he slips out the back door and has some lively sessions behind the barn. Dosamps, apparently, does not provide enough work, but the challenger just kicks and pleads.

Carpentier is developing his footwork and is working the makers of his hardest punches. In his workouts before newspapermen he has shown a tendency to lead with his right and leave his jaw uncovered, but in the private sessions behind the haymow it is different. The challenger's shifts at these times is so well executed that his protection is perfect.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Tommy, Milton, winner of yesterday's 500 mile speedway automobile race, may not be as nervous, but after his victory Monday, he at least believes in omens of luck.

Before the race Milton, in looking over some of the trophies offered, noticed a great silver cube with a racing car embossed on the side, one of the first place prizes. The car was numbered "2."

"You'd think that trophy had been made to order for me," remarked Milton. "Guess there's no question about my winning when they put my number on the trophies."

Milton's car was number 2, and it was number 2 that covered the 500 miles first, although the makers of the trophy probably had no idea they were naming the winner when they placed a big figure 2 on the trophy.

The race proved a great day for American racing, and for Indianapolis in particular. Eight of the 24 finishers were American made and seven of them were manufactured here.

Not for Women Only

To millions it is bringing whiter teeth

This new way of teeth-cleaning appeals to women. It brings them prettier teeth. But men also enjoy it, and children must use it to properly clean their teeth.

Millions now use it, largely by dental advice. The glistening teeth you see everywhere now show the results of its use.

Everyone needs it, as this simple test will show. See the results it brings in ten days and decide that for yourself.

You must fight film

Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. You can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays.

The ordinary tooth paste does not effectively combat it. Your tooth brush has left much of it intact. And that clinging film may do a ceaseless damage.

Film absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Also of other serious troubles, local and internal.

Thus film causes most tooth troubles. And, despite the tooth brush, all those troubles have been constantly increasing. Some have become so common as to be alarming.

Now ways to combat it

Dental science has for years sought ways to combat that film. The ways have now been found. Able authorities have amply proved their efficiency. Leading dentists everywhere now advise their daily use.

The methods are embodied in a scientific tooth-paste. The name is Pepsodent. Its use is fast spreading the world over.

To let all know it quickly, a 10-Day Tube is being presented to anyone who asks. Thus thousands of new people daily are learning its delights.

Combines five effects

But Pepsodent does more than fight film. It fights the acid which is a great tooth destroyer.

Each use of Pepsodent multiplies the salivary flow. That is Nature's great tooth-protecting agent. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is to digest the starch deposits which may otherwise remain and form acid.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is Nature's neutralizer of the acids which attack the teeth.

It combats the film wherever it adheres. It leaves the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily cling. Pepsin is also included.

See and feel it act

The results are not uncertain. You can see and feel them. Some are almost instant. A ten-day test is most convincing.

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. Watch the other good effects.

To millions this test has proved a revelation. It has shown them the way to prettier teeth, to cleaner, safer teeth. One does not return to the old ways when he sees what this new way does.

The delightful results

One conspicuous effect is to beautify the teeth. Another is a feeling of cleanliness. Men who smoke will see great changes. It is
